95th Annual Meeting of the American Association for the History of Medicine
Saratoga Springs, New York
April 21-24, 2022

Virtual Schedule

All times in Eastern Daylight Time

THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 2022

2:00-4:30 pm Sigerist Circle

Chair: Nic John Ramos, Drexel University, Antiracist Activism in Health and Medicine

1. Jessica Adler, Florida International University, Health and Care for Incarcerated Women in the United States, 1975-1985
2. Jesse Brown for Black Lives Clinical Committee, Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, Advancing Health Equity for Black Veterans by Advocating for the Removal of Race from Kidney Function Calculations
3. Marian Moser Jones, The Ohio State University; and Terri Monture, Labor and Indigenous rights activist, Legacy of Haudenosaunee Health Activism
4. Tim Muldoon, UC-Davis Health, The People's Health Coalition, Chicago, 1970
5. Jennifer Nelson, University of Redlands, Reproductive Justice in the United States and Mexico
6. Jaqueline Oliveira, and Alan Alves-Brito, Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, Campaign Against Racism, COVID-19 and the Quilombola Population of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil

3:30-5:30 pm Education and Outreach Workshop

Translating the History of Medicine into other Media Forms
Chairs: Jacqueline Antonovich, Muhlenberg College; and Claire Clark, University of Kentucky
Panelists:
Debjani Das, Vidyasagar University
Jim Downs, Gettysburg College
Sydney Halpern, University of Illinois at Chicago and Northwestern University

4:00-5:00 pm Virtual Opening Reception

FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 2022

10:30 – 12:00 noon A3. Segregation, Race, and Space

Chair: Adam Biggs, Johns Hopkins University

1. Ashley Graham-Perel, Teachers College Columbia University, "We've Integrated, Now What?" The Interrelationships between Nursing, Race, and Medicine at New York's Lincoln School for Nurses
2. Jennifer Seltz, Western Washington University, "Building the Baby Boom in a Segregating City: Racial Geographies of Birth and Pregnancy in Postwar Seattle"
3. Kevin McQueeney, Nicholls State University, "A Great and Manifest Destiny": Creating A White Medical District in New Orleans, 1900-1940 (Pre-recorded video)

3:00-4:30 pm B3. Medicine and Slavery in the North
Roundtable Session
Chair: Jason Glenn, University of Kansas Medical Center
Introduction: Richard Mizelle, University of Houston

Panelists:
Christopher Willoughby, Schomburg Center For Research In Black Culture
Rana Hogarth, University of Illinois

5:00-5:45 pm Author Chat 3
Chair: TBD

1. Susan Reverby, Wellesley College, retired, Co-Conspirator for Justice: The Revolutionary Life of Dr. Alan Berkman
2. Sydney Halpern, University of Illinois, Chicago, Dangerous Medicine: The Story behind Human Experiments with Hepatitis

SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 2022
9:45-11:15 am C3. Health Politics and Activism
Chair: TBD

1. Isobel Ashby, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Recruiting Right-to-Lifers on Campus: Feminists for Life of America, 'Pro-Life, Pro-Women' Activism, and College Outreach Programs
2. Karissa Patton and Whitney Wood, Vancouver Island University, "An Act of Independence and Self Love": Self-Examination as Women's Health Activism in Canada, 1970-1990
3. Eana Meng, Harvard Medical School, "The Promised Land": The 1972 Black Panther Party Delegation to China and Its Impact on Three Healthcare Providers

1:30-3:00 pm D3. The Power in Front of the Throne?
Chair: Mical Raz, University of Rochester

1. Kelly O'Donnell, Yale University, Behind the Great Doctors: Locating the Physician's Wife in the History of American Medicine
2. Sarah Naramore, Northwest Missouri State University, Sense and Amiability: Julia Rush and the character of American medicine, 1776-1815
3. Wendy Kline, Purdue University, Nassar and the National Nightmare: gynecology, gymnastics, and the potential for abuse

3.15-4.14 pm AAHM Business Meeting

4:30-6:00 pm E3. When and Where Slavery Entered: New Directions in the Study of Race and Medicine
Chair: Cassia Roth, University of Georgia

1. Jim Downs, Gettysburg College, The Phantom of Slavery in Epidemiology: (In)visible Knowledge Production in the Atlantic World
2. Rana Hogarth, University of Illinois, "For negroes do not prepare so much, nor so good blood as the whites…": Enduring Medical Knowledge in the Age...

3. Diana Louis, University of Michigan, The "Method in her Madness": Harriet Tubman and 19th-century Conceptions of Insanity (Pre-recorded video)

SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2022

8:30-10:00am F1. Disease, Surveillance, and the Carceral State

Chair: Samuel Roberts,

1. John Shepherd, Durham University, Data, Diagnostics and Delinquency: Clinical Crime Prevention in Interwar Massachusetts
2. Alexandra Halberstam, Yale University, Incarceration of Tuberculosis Patients at the Turn of the 21st Century: Infectious Disease Control and Expansion of the Carceral State
3. Lynne Gerber, Siri Colom, Independent Scholar, Weed at the Altar: Religion and the Distribution of Medical Marijuana in 1990s San Francisco

10:30-12:00 noon G1. Children as Historical Subjects

Chair: Amy Hay, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

1. Elisabeth Yang, Rutgers University, Home Nurseries: Medico-Moral Domains of American Infants in Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth-Century Medical Advice Literature
2. Ljeoma Kola, University of Notre Dame, Asthma's Poster Children: Black Children at Residential Asthma Treatment Centers, 1960-1975
3. Lisa Pruitt, Middle Tennessee State University, Who in the World was Katie Beckett? Ventilator-Dependent Children and the Battle for Home-Based Care in the 1980s